Response to a final Office action under 37 C.F.R. 1.116

Summary of the prosecution

Applicant received a final Office action mailed 6/2/2005 in the above application in which Examiner rejected claims 1-19 currently in the application under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over the combination of the Texier and Schultz references. Applicant's attorney requested a telephonic interview in the application. Examiner graciously granted the request and the interview was scheduled for July 7, 2005 at 2:00. In order to increase the efficiency of the interview process, Applicant's attorney provided Examiner with a copy of the arguments Applicant's attorney intended to make prior to the interview. Those arguments form the basis of the present response.

Traversal of the rejection of the claims

Requirement of a prima facie case

In order to reject a claim under 35 U.S.C. 103, Examiner must make a prima facie case of obviousness. As set forth at MPEP 2142, to establish the prima facie case, Examiner must show the following:

First, there must be some suggestion or motivation . . . to modify the reference or to combine reference teachings. Second, there must be a
